

WHAT STUDENTS ARE SAYING...

"I really enjoy going to Chabad on Fridays for Shabbat because of the intimate environment. It reminds me of going to my grandparents when I was young. Such a diverse group of people attend each week which allows you to meet more people in the F&M community." – Cori Kaylor

"I love coming to Chabad for shabbos because despite my crazy week of school work and sorority events, Shira's matzaball soup is a constant I can look forward to." – Emily Kagan

"With Chabad, you're only ever just a short walk away from home. Shabbat dinner with Chabad at F&M offers the comfort of friends and family, with the taste and feel of a home-cooked meal. Undoubtedly the best food on campus!" – Jon Pressman

"Every time I go to a Chabad event, I feel like I am being welcomed into one giant family and always have a great time. Having the great experiences that I have had at Chabad at F&M definitely helped make the college transition process so much easier on me." – Shira Kipnees

"I am proud to be part of Chabad: I have a bond that will last forever. A great group of friends, spiritual guidance and friendship with Rabbi Green, and all-around flexible and easy-going environment make Chabad the place all Jews at F&M will feel comfortable and part of the family." – Ian A. Cummings, President.

Shabbat

Join us Friday nights for a 4-course home-cooked gourmet Shabbat dinner! Great food, inspiring stories, lively singing, see old friends and make new ones. Delicious challah. Ice-cold sparkling grape juice. Out-of-this-world desserts...Great food. Good company. Family-style dinner. It's Friday night... Let's call it a date—Shabbat! Dinner times are usually around 7:00pm, but we have a strict “come when you can, leave when you want” policy. And don't even bother to ring the doorbell - come right in! For last-minute changes and current times, check out the events listed on our Facebook group – www.fandmchai.com

“I enjoy coming to the Greens for Shabbat. You can come by yourself or with a friend and you end up meeting and sitting with other students just talking and enjoying yourself. Shira is an incredible cook and she and the Rabbi are approachable, friendly, and outgoing. They make you feel at home.”

- Dan Becker

Meat & Feast

Our monthly mixer at the student center; stop by and have some FREE FOOD. We have tons of deli meats for making your own delicious sandwiches, great sides including pickles, various sliced peppers - hot and mild - salad, steaming-hot chicken matzo ball soup, drinks, desserts and more...

Trip to Israel

Six Franklin and Marshall students joined Mayanot Israel on the Taglit-Birthright Israel trip this past summer (2012). Mayanot Israel is a leading official provider of Taglit-Birthright Israel trips. Each trip is 10 days long and free. No conditions attached. You'll hike, climb, kayak, camel ride, float, swim and party around the whole country! We'll be hosting an informational session in the first few weeks of the semester. Please let us know you'd like to attend by emailing josh@jewishenrichment.com

Holiday Services/Meals

Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur, Chanukah, Purim, Passover...Relax – we've got you covered. We offer High Holiday services (in English & Hebrew!) right near campus, shofar blowing ON campus, Menorah lighting on Chanukah, Purim Megilah reading, Passover Seder and more. Each of these holidays have their own “flavor” and appropriate delicious dinner.

Meet our hosts! Rabbi Elazar & Shira Green host the Chabad at F&M club every week for Shabbat Dinner.
