Jewish Calendar

Dear Fellow Students,

The first few days of my college experience were filled with excitement, curiosity, and uncertainty.

From the first Shabbat dinner with the Chabad Student Group, hosted by Rabbi Elazar & Shira Green, I knew that Chabad was a place for me.

Shira's delicious food with the warmth and comfortable atmosphere of Shabbat soon became the highlight of my week.

The Chabad House has truly become my home on campus, a place where we enjoy wonderful company and meaningful conversations.

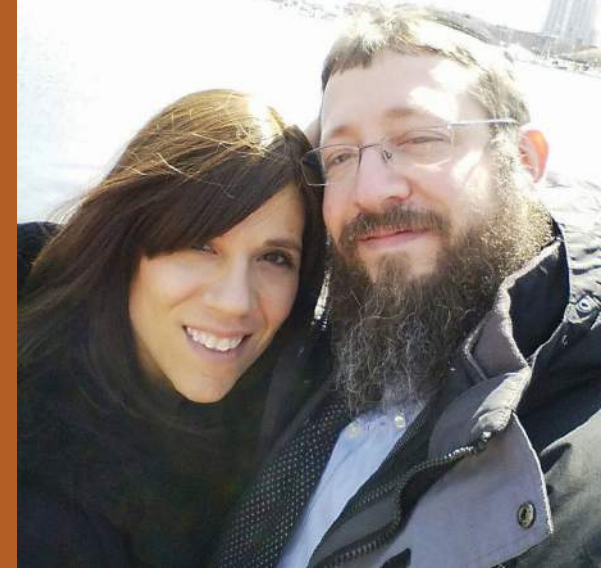

I am grateful that we have this club at F&M. Chabad provides me with the support and encouragement of a true family. I am proud to serve as president.

On behalf of Chabad at F&M, I invite you to join us for Shabbat Dinner, where you will discover the warmest place and the best food on campus.

What is Chabad?

Chabad at F&M was founded in 2005 by 11 students to provide the F&M community with a home-like Jewish experience. We are a student driven organization dedicated to providing Jewish programming that is open to everyone. Our Rabbi Elazar and Mrs. Shira Green serve as our spiritual advisers and host most meals in their home on Race Avenue.

I'm not Orthodox, do I belong there?

Only if you enjoy delicious food, stimulating conversations, and company. Atheists, Agnostics, Orthodox, Conservative, Reform, people from all sorts of backgrounds and religions have attended and had a good time.

Where are your events?

Generally, meals are hosted in the Chabad House, by the Greens, at 620 Race Ave, right across from the college.

Other events are at the Chabad Center on Harrisburg Pike (Right next to Turkey Hill).
